

Sararas Ektra School

Global Assessment
Certificate™

News

December 2019

Coming Soon

- Christmas Shows
19th, 20th, 23rd December
- AFR Day
24th December
- Christmas Holiday
25th December - 1st January
- Mid-Semester Exams
6th - 10th January
- Sports
14th January
- Ektra-Thon
15th January
- Sports Carnival
17th January
- GAC Entry Test
18th January

Christmas Shows

⇒ Every Christmas Show is important.

Keeep the standards high this year.

Timing is so important when it is limited.

Remember your lines and wow the audience.

After the shows, it's holiday time...relax...

ACT Scholarship News

On Wednesday 30th October Ms. Christine Hoe (ACT) was here at Ektra with great news about scholarships. ACT has confirmed that some of the pathway universities continue to give up to $60,000, and others up to 51 credits to all GAC students who qualify.

More information at...www.act.org

Ms. Rezia Usman, from Solbridge International School of Business, was also here to advise of a competition for Ektra GAC students to win up to 9 scholarships to study at Solbridge in South Korea. This competition is based on three GAC assessments the students already do (007 AE1, 008 AE4 & 012 AE3). Also, if not interested in the competitions, all GAC students can apply for up to 100% scholarships based on their GAC scores.

More information at... www.solbridge.ac.kr

European Scholarships

Friday 1st November saw Dr. Laslo Kozma give an in-depth presentation to students and parents interested in available scholarships for the University of Debrecen in Hungary.

The scholarship package includes 100% for the tuition fees, a monthly spending stipend, a stipend towards accommodation, and, medical insurance. The university has been around since 1538, has 14 faculties on 7 campuses, and over 5,600 international students from over 110 countries.

Internationally recognized degrees.

More information at...www.edu.unideb.hu

